Phil Rainey

I bring a very unique and diverse set of skills to the position from prior experience working in several sports on different levels up to and including high school, collegiate and the professional level for more than ten years like recruiting, coaching, video coordination (which included shooting, uploading and editing video), team public relations, team marketing, game day management, operations, and officiating. The qualities I possess that make me a strong candidate and a good scout if given the opportunity include being a self starter with a can do personality that is detail oriented, observant, perceptive, passionate about my job, organized and tenacious in completing any assignment given. I make a habit of exercising good judgement and being accountable in everything I do whether I succeed or fail. I'm a people person that loves to travel and meet new people and have unique experiences in life.

His Objective is:

To turn his passion for football, competitive nature, desire to be the best at everything he does, his past and present experience and skill set into an opportunity to become an NFL Scout.
